

Il Pellicano, Italy

The pontoon at Il Pellicano hotel, on the Tuscan coast just north of Rome, is where the beautiful people like to hang out. Peering down from on high, the clay-red main building and cottages are set among olive trees – perfect for an apéritif in the shade. If you can muster the energy to leave the hotel, Il Pellicano runs boat trips to neighbouring coastal towns and villages in a wooden speedboat with a classic veneer.

Italian Expressions (020 7435 2525, www.expressionsholidays.co.uk) has five nights at Il Pellicano, from £915pp, B&B, including return flights from Heathrow and car hire. Irish and regional add-ons available on request.
