LAID-BACK LUXURY

Five-star resort Diva Maldives has taken relaxation to another level by allowing you to leave your cares – and credit cards – at home. The new all-inclusive experience offers a simple, upfront holiday price, so all you have to worry about is whether to laze on the deck of your villa or take a dip in the turquoise lagoon. Seasons in Style (01244 202002, www.seasonsinstyle.com) offers a seven-night, all-inclusive experience from £2,490 per person, including return British Airways flights and seaplane transfers.

I LOVE...

this flirty fuchsia bikini top, £36, and briefs, £28, by Seafolly, guaranteed to make a statement on your honeymoon. What's more, Kate Moss is also a fan of the cult Aussie brand. Available at www.selfridges.com.

Travel writer's choice

From romantic retreats to travel essentials, Carrie Mitchell reveals her hottest picks for your honeymoon

PETITE PROTECTION
New to Clinique's great suncare range is this nifty little stick, £15, designed to protect the sensitive areas we tend to forget about, such as lips, eyelids and ears. www.clinique.co.uk.

Short-haul haven

There's no need to take a 12-hour flight to find your dream honeymoon destination. For a luxurious seaside retreat closer to home, Portugal boasts balmy temperatures, stunning vistas and charming culture. For palatial accommodation and flawless service, stay at Vila Vita Parc in the pretty Algarve, where you can take in ocean panoramas from your terrace and spend lazy days sunning yourselves on the private beach. Rooms cost from £370 per night. For more details and to book online, visit www.vilavitaparc.com.

Channel 5's The Hotel Inspector reveals the UK's best retreats in her new book, Alex Polizzi's Little Black Book Of Hotels (£20, Quadrille), out on 6 August. It's a must-read if you're planning a romantic UK mini-moon
